

People Powered Politics

Now more than ever, the candidates that we elect to office matter. There is an organized attack that is happening against working people called “The Right to Work” that is driving down wages and benefits for union and non-union workers. However, working together, we have done a good job of electing champions that have helped our members improve their lives. Just this year, our elected champions have helped settle contracts for Silicon Valley security and at Disneyland, and have helped raise wages for airport workers in LA and San Francisco.

None of these victories would be possible without USWW members engaging in political action. This means talking to voters on the phone and at their homes to make sure they understand who is really fighting for working people. Make sure you volunteer to help keep our union strong. When We Fight, We Win!

How You Can Get Involved:

In Congress, my mission will be to bring more good-paying jobs and more investment to the Valley - so a child growing up today can have the same opportunities I had as a kid. I will work with Republicans, Democrats, and Independents to help our local farms and businesses prosper by investing in education and infrastructure and helping to create more good paying jobs. I will also stand up to President Trump when he is wrong, and fight his agenda when it threatens our values and our families.
